

AN ULVERSCROFT EXCLUSIVE

Available in Large Print, Audio CD, MP3 CD or as Digital Download

The Autumn Murders

By Robert Gott. Part of The Holiday Murder Series.

SYNOPSIS

George Starling is preparing to exact revenge on the person he hates most in the world: Detective Joe Sable. Driven by his passion for Nazism, Starling is going to make sure that nothing and no one will stand in his way. In the meantime, Homicide has become a dangerous place for Joe to work. Constable Helen Lord, suspended from her position and battling grief, is also in Starling's sights. Knowing that Inspector Titus Lambert can't protect them from Starling's ruthless aim, Helen and Joe decide to set their own trap. But when the trap is sprung, who will be caught in it?

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Robert Gott was born in the small Queensland town of Maryborough in 1957, and lives in Melbourne. He has published many books for children, created the newspaper cartoon The Adventures of Naked Man and written the The Holiday Murders series.

For more information about Ulverscroft Ltd and our titles please contact:

Francis Richardson frichardson@ulverscroft.com.au or Michael Hanify mhanify@ulverscroft.com.au