

AN ULVERSCROFT EXCLUSIVE

Available in Large Print, Audio CD, MP3 CD or as Digital Download

The Port Fairy Murders

By Robert Gott. Part of The Holiday Murder Series.

SYNOPSIS

1943: The newly formed Homicide division of the Victoria Police has been struggling to counter fascist group Australia First. Detective Joe Sable and Constable Helen Lord are working to track down the ruthless George Starling, who in turn is planning to wreak vengeance on them for the downfall of his nationalist group and mentor. At the same time, the duo is called to investigate a double murder in the fishing village of Port Fairy. The solution seems straightforward, but it soon becomes apparent that nothing about the incident is as it seems...

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Robert Gott was born in the small Queensland town of Maryborough in 1957, and lives in Melbourne. He has published many books for children, created the newspaper cartoon The Adventures of Naked Man and written the The Holiday Murders series.

For more information about Ulverscroft Ltd and our titles please contact:

Francis Richardson frichardson@ulverscroft.com.au or Michael Hanify mhanify@ulverscroft.com.au