"A very beautiful
story about
second chances
and friendship"

Reader Review

Amy Piper is a loser. She's lost her confidence, her mojo and her way. What she needs are friends and an adventure. And when she joins a running group of women who call themselves The Larks, she finds both. Not to mention their inspiring (and rather handsome) coach, Nathan. Once upon a time Amy was a winner - at life, at sport and in love. Now, with every ounce of strength she has left, she is determined to reclaim the life she had, for herself and for her son, Joey. And who knows, she might just be a winner again - at life, sport, and love, if she looks in the right places...
