The book behind the HUGE hit TV series!

Teenagers Connell and Marianne pretend not to know each other. He's popular and well-adjusted, while she is lonely, proud and intensely private. But a connection begins to grow between the two teenagers - one they are determined to conceal.

A year later, they're both studying at Trinity College in Dublin. Marianne has found her feet in a new social world, while Connell hangs on the sidelines. Throughout their time at university, Marianne and Connell circle one another, straying toward other people and possibilities. And as she veers into self-destruction and he begins to search for meaning elsewhere, each must confront how far they are willing to go to save the other...
