Mary Shields is a moody, acerbic Glaswegian probation officer. Liam Macdowall, imprisoned for murdering his wife, has published a series of letters to her in a book and ends up a poster boy for men's rights activists. Liam is released on licence into Mary's care, but Mary develops a poisonous obsession with him. And when her son and Liam's daughter form a relationship, Mary will stop at nothing to impose her own brand of justice with devastating consequences...
